good summer.
Love
Gabrielle

Mickey we partied pretty hard last night. Cause though you weren't there you couldn't prevent it. I know you wouldn't want me to have sat on my own all night. Hope it was worth it. Have a great summer.

is only a vision.

The
most precious
things
in our lives
are those
we cannot
touch:
a
laugh,
a
smile,
friendship,
a
sunrise,
fall
day,
warmth
and security . . .

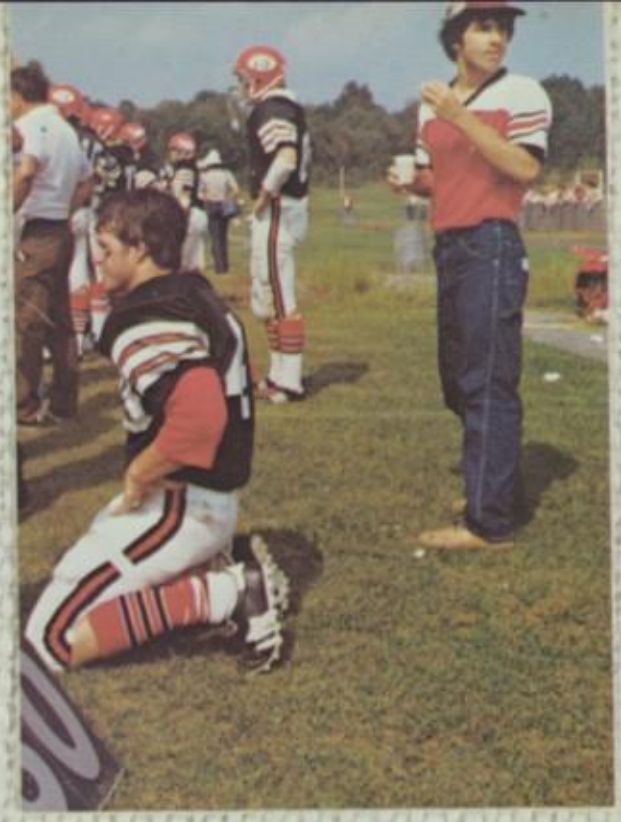
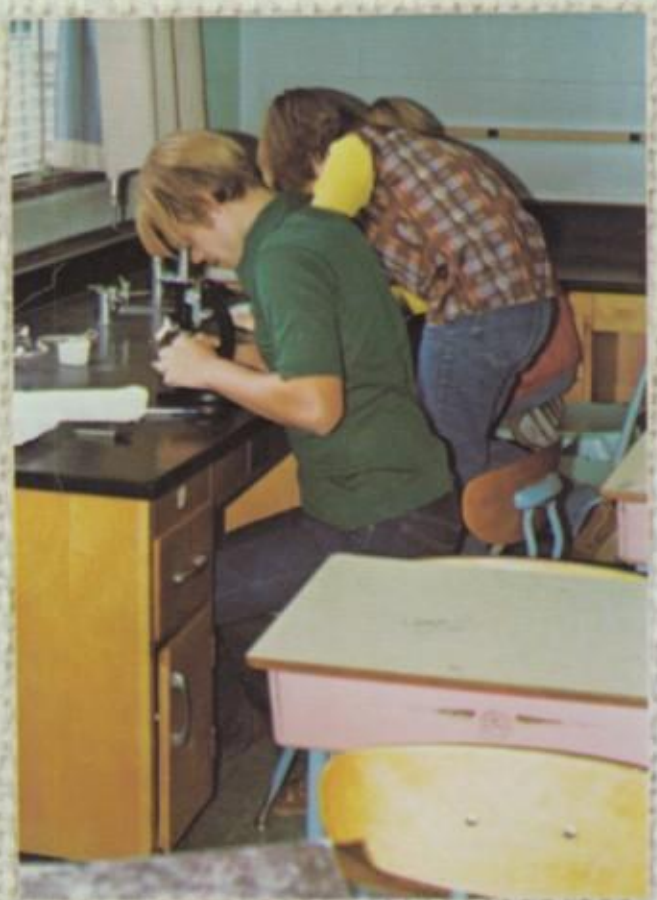
. . . another's
understanding
and acceptance,
love,
dreams,
and memories.

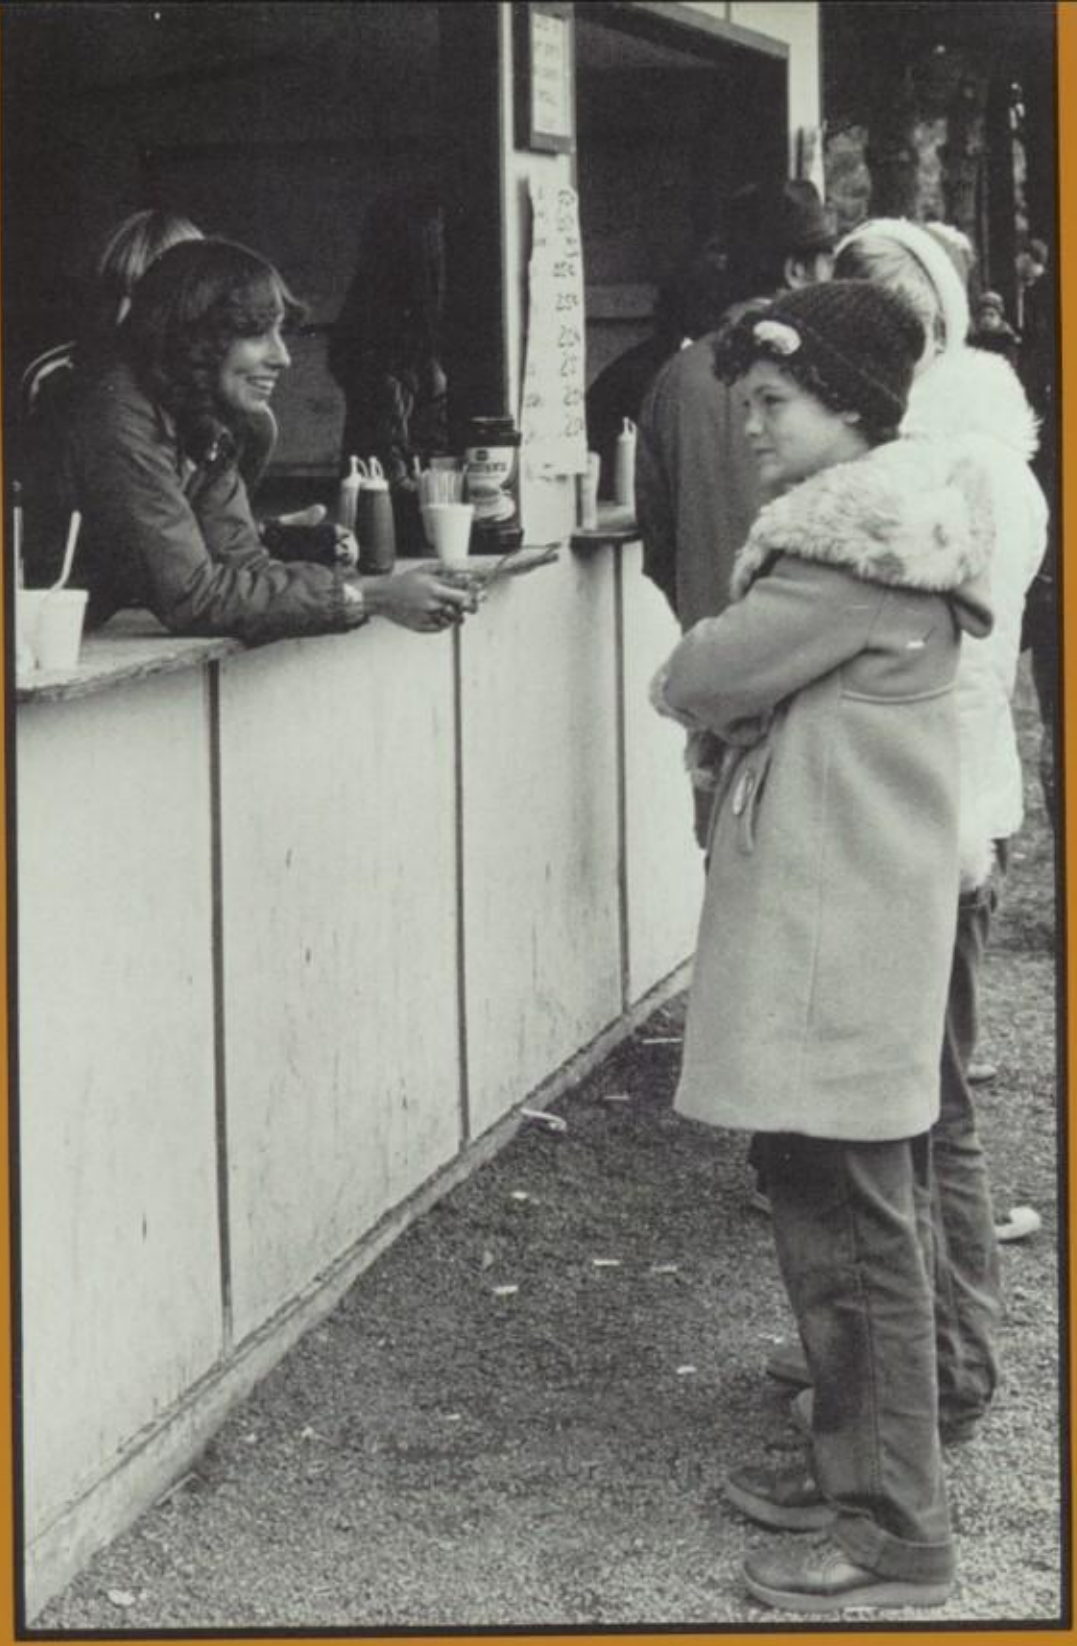
Time is short.

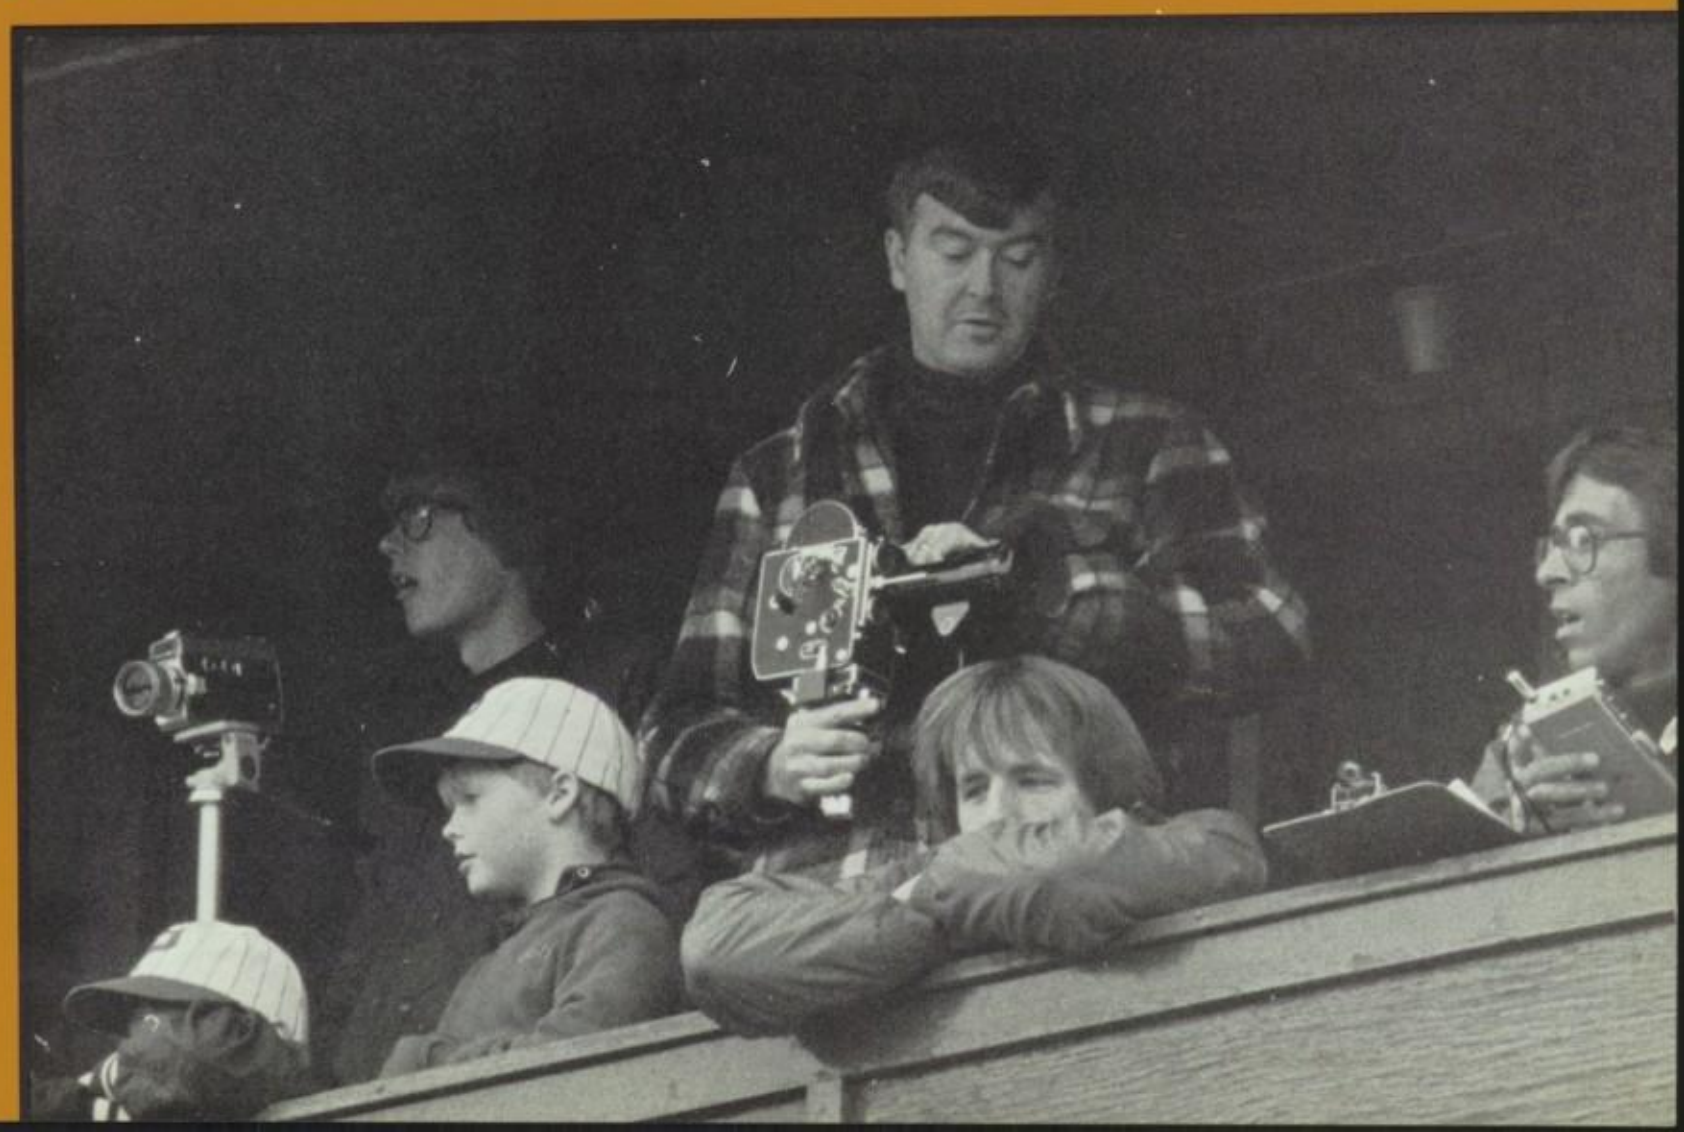


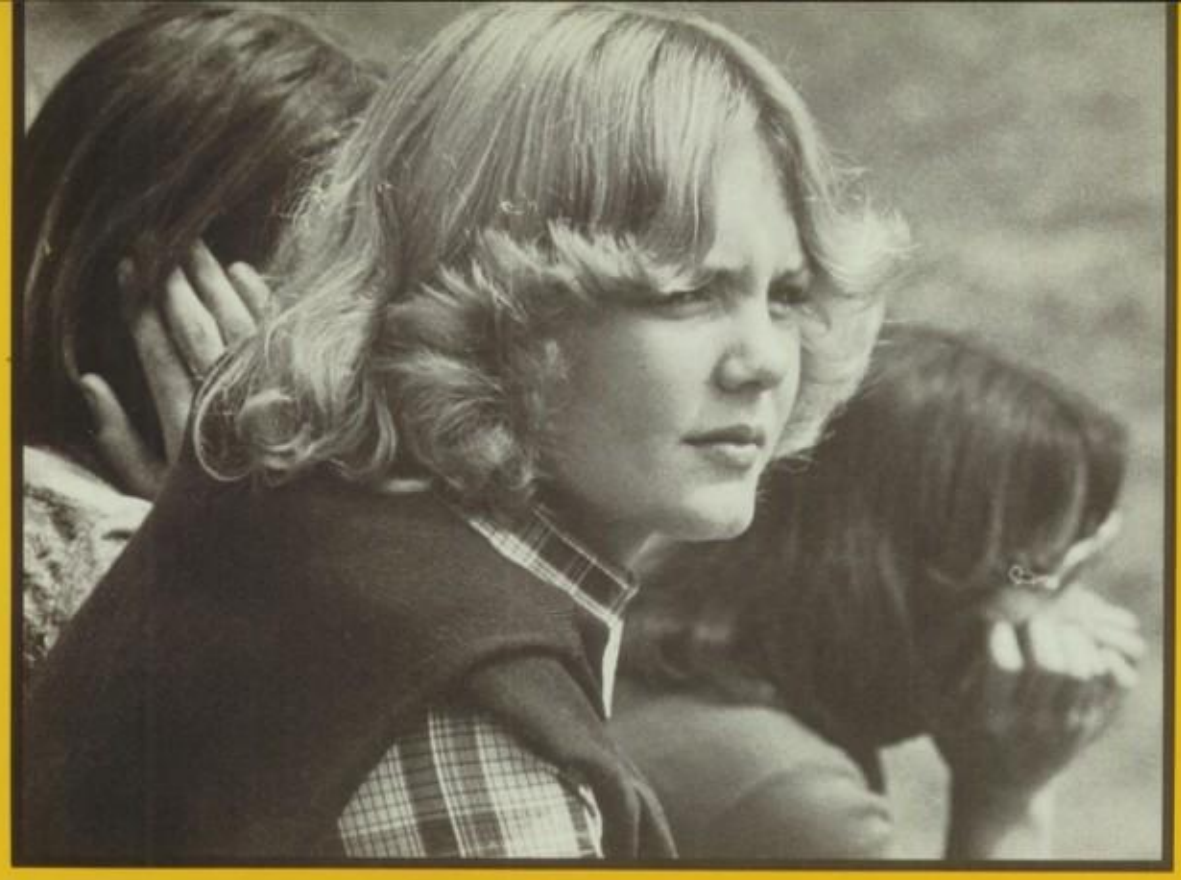


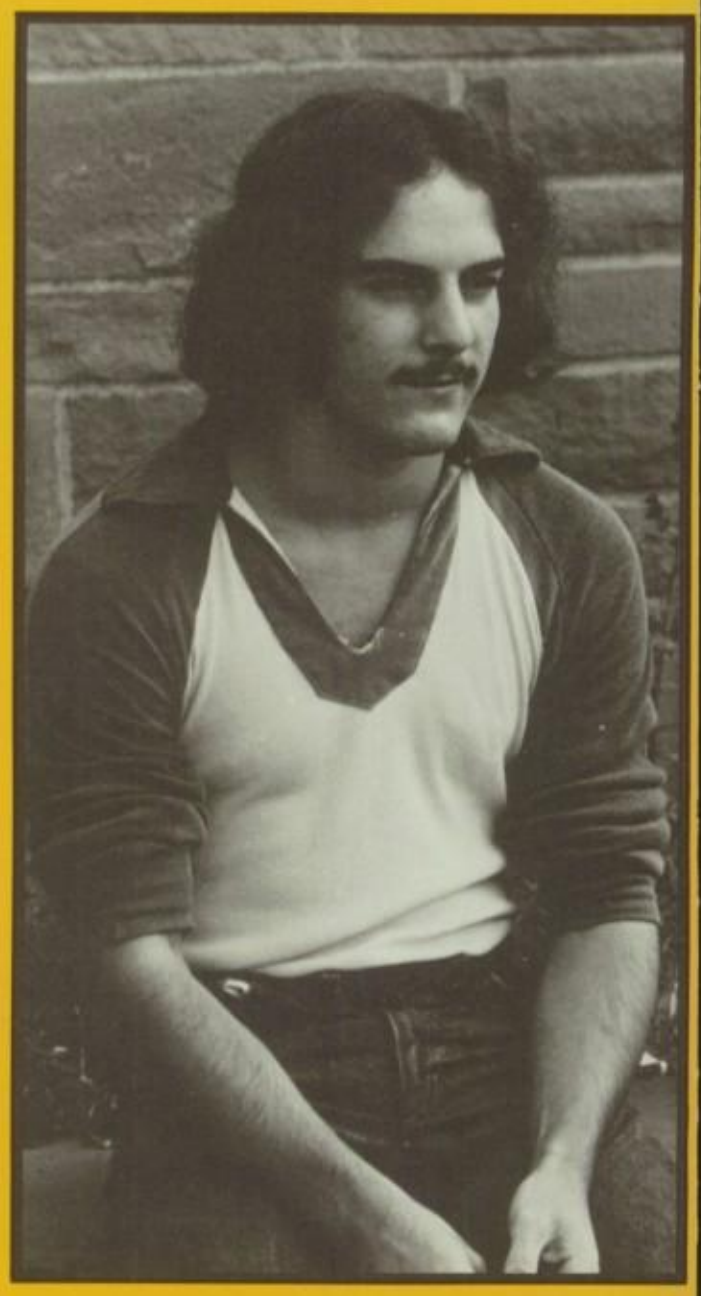
I will not pass this way again.

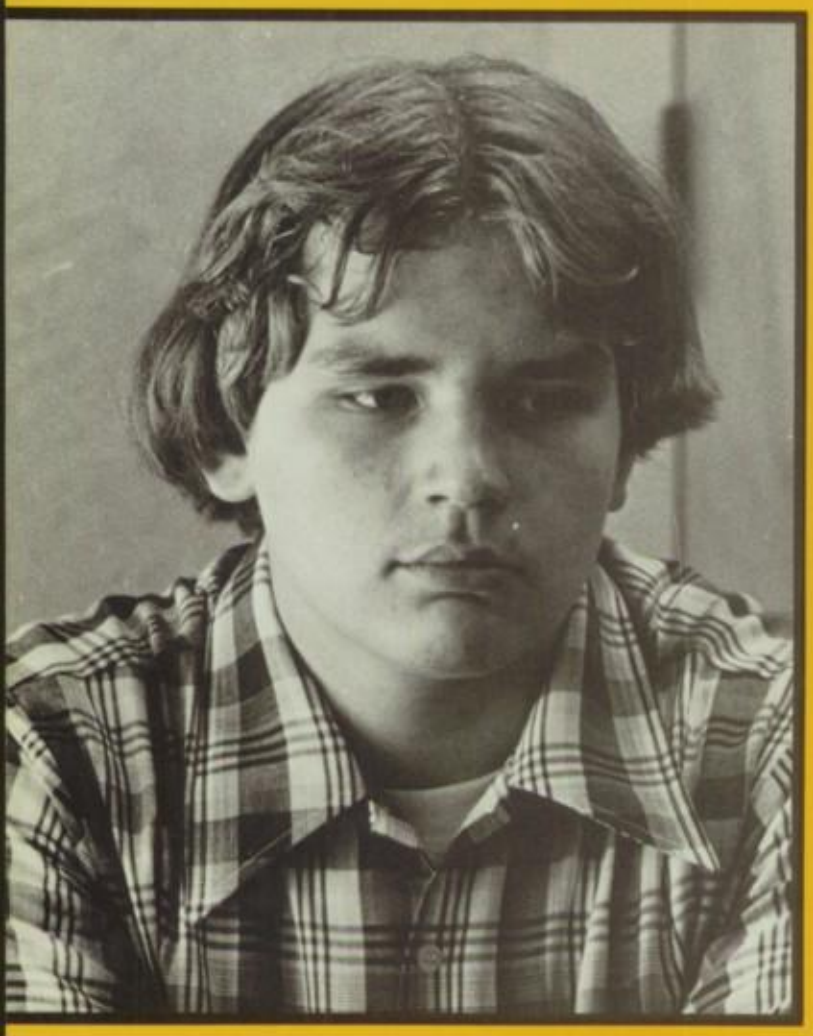
Today well lived makes yesterday a dream of happiness . . .

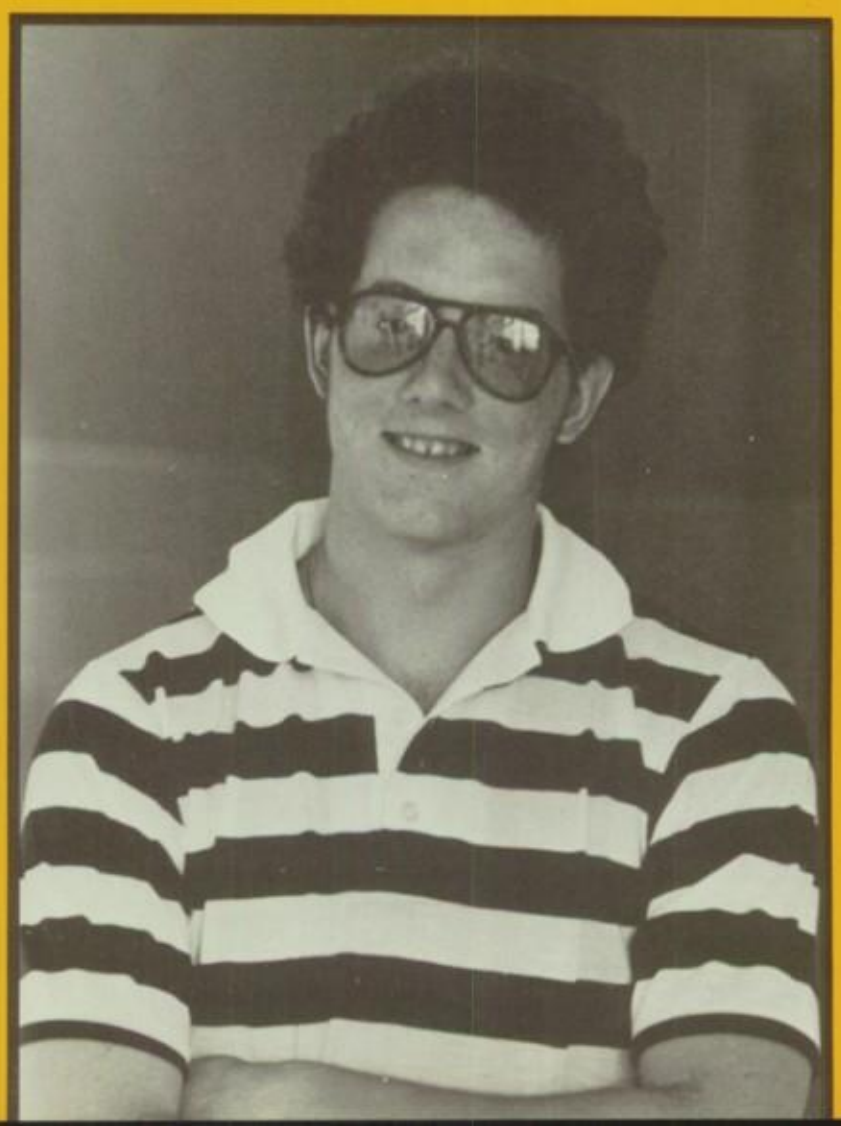












. . . and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Whew! What a job!

The 1978 yearbook staff
began their year
with the annual "painting of the rock"
on a hill overlooking our city's dump
in August Getting up
at 8 o'clock (in the morning)
was a real challenge,
but we made it.

Work, Work, Work . . .
is what comes to most of our minds
when we think of our yearbook.
But work was always mixed
with friends and fun.

It's been a struggle
to keep up with
our many and varied deadlines,
but thanks to that wonderful thing,
stick-to-it-ive-ness,
we haven't missed a single deadline.

In January,
we held a very successful Talent Show,
under the direction of George Husson
and Joe Rifkin
which netted over $200.
for our yearbook treasury.
Thanks to all the people
who helped to make our yearbook
the success it is.
Dr. Patrick DiCaprio, Mr. Faiello,
Mr. Mickel, Mr. Proulx, and Mrs. LaRue are only a few of the faculty and friends
that come to mind.
Our thanks go to Mr. Everett Arnold
and the American Yearbook Company
for his everfaithful
cooperation, inspiration and assistance.

It is our hope
that you enjoy our creation.
Our best to you in all you achieve.

Carry on and keep the faith,

George H. Husson, Editor-in-Chief

We had a stake out on the canal.

R.V., M.M., and K.C. went for a ride to Milford and M.M. dropped her G.I.

D.C., K.G., and E.C. went to M.V.

Jeff and Joe rode in Schotzies trunk after "Guys and Dolls."

A six of Miller was $1.76.

K.G. and R.F. turned K.D. in for cheating.

S.D. and S.P. went to K-Mart where it all started.

Bill Smith had his 18th birthday party.

We hated each other.

Third period study with J.E., C.R., S.K., and F.R.

E.E. rolled his VW in K-Mart's parking lot.

Russ, Glenn, John and Vince got drunk at Len and Joe's.

Rick, Rusty, and Glenn "weren't" out cruisin' looking for women.

Ginny and Wendy tried to laugh but cried.

M.K., S.G., L.F., D.L., D.C., and L.J. went cruisin', then to the dance and the teachers all stared.

D.N., S.D., J.B., B.R., A.N., E.E. and cousins went to the waterfalls.

The brakes gave out on Kolmar Hill and you jumped out.

Jackie went out with Doug, Sept. 25, 1976.

We left B.K.S. and T.S.'s party and they got busted.

Hey L.O. and C.G., remember when D.H. and R.S. thought they knew where they were going.

Craig and Chris came to Montaque Lake!

S.D., K.O., T.H. and C.S. got blitzed 4th period S.C.?

D.O. and D.K. were downtown and D.O. yelled rude things to people on the street.

We were Burnt-out freshmen.

B.M. and D.S. carried B.P. all the way home from The Hut.

We dropped off Maureen after the Jr.-Sr. Prom and stayed in her driveway until 4 a.m. - we had lots of fun.

Alice Spoonhower and Bumpy Westfall first met.

M.M., B.J., B.K., T.S., and A.G. packed mud on B.K.'s Opel and took it to a car wash in D.V.

We went to Cherry's Disco in London and kept ordering 6 gin fizzes.

C.C. and B.B. fought for Brad and at the end nobody wanted him.

Val and Tom took the big step without Doug and me to stand up with them.

R.B., W.M., and M.T. partied at the "Rocky" May 29, 1976.

T.S., K.T., S.C., M.M. went to the movies and S.C. unloaded.

A milestone by the stormy road,
Where you may lay aside your load
and bow your face and rest and wait,
Defying fear, defying hate.
